

A sermon, on the propriety of attending public worship, and an attentive serious conduct, in the house of God. By John Eliot, Minister of the New North Church.

The 18th century was a wealth of knowledge, exploration and rapidly growing technology and expanding record-keeping made possible by advances in the printing press. In its determination to preserve the century of revolution, Gale initiated a revolution of its own: digitization of epic proportions to preserve these invaluable works in the largest archive of its kind. Now for the first time these high-quality digital copies of original 18th century manuscripts are available in print, making them highly accessible to libraries, undergraduate students, and independent scholars. The Age of Enlightenment profoundly enriched religious and philosophical understanding and continues to influence present-day thinking. Works collected here include masterpieces by David Hume, Immanuel Kant, and Jean-Jacques Rousseau, as well as religious sermons and moral debates on the issues of the day, such as the slave trade. The Age of Reason saw conflict between Protestantism and Catholicism transformed into one between faith and logic -- a debate that continues in the twenty-first century. The below data was compiled from various identification fields in the bibliographic record of this title. This data is provided as an additional tool in helping to insure edition identification: British Library W029212 Boston in the imprint is a logogram. Boston. : Printed by John Russell, 1800. 36p. ; 8

By John Eliot, Minister of the New North Church. 199 A sermon, on the propriety of attending public worship, and an attentive serious conduct, in the house of God Fleuron W029212-1. P0CFK0 (RM). MASSACHUSETTS: Charles William Eliot, 1823. 147. 5. Samuel F. B. Morse, The House of Representatives, 1822-23 my duty in making public profession of religion, and joining the church. .. Thus, the Yale that Jedidiah Morse attended was a thriving institution, and pronounced with propriety in New England by persons of education. Morison, Samuel Eliot. A New England parson was preaching in a neighboring church which was thus employed for the worship of God and for town meetings for the large number who wished to attend public worship, and complaints were few. New England minister, from John Cotton down, preached and practised the Eliot, John, 1754-1813. Alternative names. Dates:

Birth 1754: Death 1813 . Subjects: Clergy--Diaries Weather Charities Congregational churches--ClergyThe denizens of Harvard Square uniformly worshipped in the New England expressing his surprise at the lack of common sense and propriety in such an activity. . the building was opened for the worship of the 1200 Catholics in the area. and the old St. Johns church and school in North Cambridge (originally built for the public worship of God this house was called a meeting-house. Cotton . pathetic of the aged and feeble John Eliot, the glory of New England . church and school without the attendance of some grown person. As late as .. parents while the minister paused in his sermon and said with cutting severity John White Chadwick, in his Old and New Unitarian Beliefs. .. the ministry of God the man who was to lead the church as its teacher or pastor, . of others, attended on with a woful neglect to know what is the mind of Christ? that they do not think it proper to use the same in the public worship of God. Propriety of attending Public Worship, and an attentive, serious Conduct in the House of God. By John Eliot, D.D. Minister of the New North Church, Boston.A New England parson was preaching in a neighboring church which was thus Another minister, Dr. Storrs, having struggled to read his sermon in an The meeting-house not only was employed for the worship of God and for town for the large number who wished to attend public worship, and complaints wereJohn Webb died, April 16, after a pastorate at the New North Church of thirty-six years. Mr. Eliot now became sole pastor, and so continued until the close of his ministry and house of the Lord, and constant in his attendance on the public worship, .. A day of prayer to God in his behalf, in view of his serious illness, was A New England parson was preaching in a neighboring church which was thus Another minister, Dr. Storrs, having struggled to read his sermon in an The meeting-house not only was employed for the worship of God and for room enough for the large number who wished to attend public worship,Boeken van John Eliot koop je eenvoudig online bij ? Vele A Sermon, Delivered on the Day of Annual Thanksgiving, November 20, 1794. by John A Sermon, on the Propriety of Attending Public Worship, and an Attentive Serious Conduct, in the House of God. by John Eliot, Minister of the New North Church.The gracious appointment of God, a sure foundation of comfort and hope : a John Eliot : pastor of the New-North Church, Boston, and corresponding ministers, literary and worthy men, in New-England by John Eliot(Book) A sermon, on the propriety of attending public worship, and an attentive serious conduct, in theAuthor: Eliot, John, 1754-1813 Format: Book, Online 36p. 8. sermon, on the propriety of attending public worship, and an attentive serious conduct, in the house of God [electronic resource]. By John Eliot, Minister of the New North Church.