

A Matter of Chance (Mills & Boon M&B) (Betty Neels Collection, Book 34)

Mills & Boon presents the complete Betty Neels collection. Timeless tales of heart-warming romance by one of the worlds best-loved romance authors. Was she in the right place at the wrong time? Cressida had lost her parents, and badly needed a new focus. It seemed ideal, going to Holland to help an elderly Dutch doctor with a book he was writing, giving up her own nursing job for a while. Her new employer had two partners: one was elderly and friendly like himself; the other was younger, and not quite so friendly! Giles van der Tiele always seemed to be snubbing Cressida, putting her in her place; yet he could be extremely charming when he liked too much so for her peace of mind! But she knew she was no competition for the sophisticated widow Monique de Vries, who clearly found Giles charming, too
