When the coffee shop manager is murdered in Middleburys Amish Artisan Village, two women from different walks of life must join together to solve the mystery. Spring has arrived in Middlebury, Indiana, and Amber Wright is optimistic about the growing profit from her collection of Amish shops until she receives a call that Ethan Gray is dead. Hurrying over to A Simple Blend, she finds a solitary hole in the front window and the store manager lying next to the espresso machine, dead from an apparent heart attack. All the money is still in his register. When Amber hires a young Amish woman, Hannah Troyer, to take over the shops duties, the two women become fast friends as well as amateur sleuths. The police believe Grays death is a by-product of vandalism, but Amber and Hannah arent convinced. Clues that dont add up, a neighbor who is pulled into the midst of the investigation, a town with secrets to hide, and a blossoming romance all will combine to push Amber and Hannah into unfamiliar roles in order to reveal answers to the mysteries around them. Chapman's latest is a mix of mystery and romance with vivid characters, a realistic setting and themes of loss, trust and love. Romantic Times, four-star review
