

This is the autobiography of Ann Walker a worldwide renowned Spiritualist Medium, and, even though she describes herself as an ordinary housewife and mother, she has been described by the Daily Mirror as the next Doris Stokes. In this book, Ann takes us through the stages of her troubled and traumatic life. After thirty-seven years she is introduced to her spiritual guide called White Arrow who opens up a whole new world for her. Ann Walkers remarkable true story has a message for each and every one of us and at the same time endorsing the fact that we all have our very own White Arrow. She still continues to have faith in the spirit world and over the years Ann and White Arrow have helped thousands of people find faith on their pathway. On her many journeys with White Arrow, she has written three further books, Little One - Message From Planet Heaven, The Stone Of The Plough, and The Messenger The Messiah. Ann lives outside London, England with her husband Tony, who is a Ph.D.
