

Rediscovering God in America: Reflections on the Role of Faith in Our Nations History and Future

A simple walk through Washington, D.C. began a profound journey of personal discovery and renewal for Newt Gingrich, one of Americas most influential politicians and commentators. At the National Archives, the immortal words from the Declaration of Independence that we are endowed by our Creator with certain unalienable rights, jumped off the page and into his heart with the simple truth that from day one in our countrys history, the Author of freedom was not the state nor even the Founding Fathers. Our basic human rights and freedoms were -and are - Creator-endowed. Gingrich sounds a clarion call for us to recognize that the life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness that we hold so dear are inseparable from a sincere and humble acknowledgement that these gifts are only the Creators to give. A bonus PDF includes a walking tour of Washington, D.C.
