An Art Series novel Years ago, Dieter Krumpfs grandmother died and left him everything, including a photo album containing pictures of the art collection she left behind when her family fled the Nazis. Now, Dieter is calling on the services of a lawyer, Gerald Young, to determine whether his familys legacy might be returned to him. Gerald doesnt hold out much hope that the paintings will be returned, but Dieters earnestness speaks to him and he agrees to help. At first he concludes that while Dieter has a case, suing in Austria isnt practical. But Gerald is a good lawyer, and as his feelings for Dieter develop, so does his determination to win the case. Together, Gerald and Dieter navigate research, hearings, and a dysfunctional family in the pursuit of fine art?and discover the art of love along the way.
