Hannah has always been the tomboy of the Noll family, prone to climbing trees to save stray cats and keeping her brothers secrets, but can she trust her brother to keep hers? When Hannahs younger sister Sarah marries Simon Byler, everyone asks when is it her turn? So when Hannahs father wont let her travel from Lawrence to Lancaster for Rumspringa Hannah is afraid that she is destined for a boring life as an old maid, digging carrots and farming. Even God seems irritatingly silent until the arrival of the handsome Mennonite, Elam Janz, who is acceptable to Hannahs Amish father, as a farm hand, but not as a suitor; first because he is Mennonite and secondly, because Elam wants to become a doctor. Thus begins the secret courtship of Hannah and Elam. Can it last four long years of college and then medical school or will Hannahs father find out their secret and force her to marry another? The Amish of Lawrence County series is set in Western Pennsylvania, where the Amish celebrate Gods Grace with a love of the land and a life of simplicity and faith.
