

Really Something (Zebra Contemporary Romance)

Getting Even Just Got Even Better. . .
They say you cant go home again--and when home is Tempest, Indiana, Litter Box Capital of the World, whod want to? Not Allie Dean. She couldnt wait to leave the place that made her feel worthless when she was at her most vulnerable. Seven years later and 170 pounds lighter, Allies back, scouting locations for an indy flick. Its the perfect opportunity to exact the sweet revenge that comes with looking seriously hot. And the guy who broke her heart just happens to have made himself very available. . . Duncan Henry isnt used to being stood up, though the gorgeous blond who just ditched him looks like she does it all the time. Still, Duncans determined to win the stranger over, if only to get close to someone with no connection to Tempest. The truth is, Duncan hasnt had anyone he could really talk to since Allison left. Yeah, there are plenty of things the ex-jock-turned-weatherman would change if he had the chance--and maybe his chance is closer than he thinks. . . Now, with Allie getting ready to shoot and Duncan trying to score, somethings gotta give. The question is, who will give in first?
New York Times and USA Today bestselling author Shirley Jump spends her days eating, shopping and writing romantic comedies for Kensington Books as well as for both Harlequin NeXt and Harlequin Romance to feed her shoe addiction and avoid housework.
