He reunites with Ellie and Robert, two best friends from his childhood, and becomes entangled with them in a life-threatening adventure no one expects or wants. As James fights to keep Louella safe from the outlaws who want her dead, she grows into the woman he would like to spend his life with. If only danger and death didnt threaten with every assignment, they might have a chance, but can a lawman truly give up his badge? Ellie knows he cant, but is she willing to give him up so he can continue the life he needs and craves?
