She has a great job and her relationship with Matthew Bowers is emotionally and physically satisfying. She is going to figure who is messing with her life and see they get whats coming to them. When Amy uncovers secrets about Matthews past she fears the one good thing left in her life--her relationship with Matthew--is a lie. Matthew opens up and confides in Amy, but is it too late? Knowing the problem is only half of the battle; the real challenge comes when Matthew and Amy try to catch the guilty parties in the act. Amy wants those involved to be punished, but what price is she prepared to pay to see that happen? NOTE: Rival - Part Three is the final book in a three-part series.
