

Guidance On Creating Your Own Will & Power of Attorney: Legal Self Help Guide

Learn how to create your own will and power of attorney forms to prepare for an uncertain tomorrow. Written and edited by licensed attorneys. No one wants to think of their own death. But it is important to plan for your family and other loved ones are provided for if anything should happen to you. Guidance On Creating Your Own Will & Power of Attorney can help you create your will (last will and testament) and power of attorney legal documents that you actually understand. Wills and powers of attorney are not only for people who are at the age where death is not far away. People die at all ages. A will is needed if you have assets and property to be allocated to those you wish to benefit. A power of attorney can help fulfill your specific wishes if you are ever in a coma. Now is the time to think about creating your legal documents if you have not created them. If you have created them, make sure that your documents are current and reflect the changes in your life because the court will look to these documents as proof of your wishes. If you don't have them or they are missing, the court will apply state laws. These laws may not reflect your wishes, so make sure you look seriously at the making or updating of your documents at the earliest. Sample Forms Include: Wills Last Will and Testament (for single and married couples) Self-Proving Affidavits Living Will Power of Attorney Healthcare Durable Financial Durable Minor Child Care Limited. The Legal Self-Help Guide series provides information to those who want to understand their legal rights and responsibilities in an effort to resolve legal problems or know enough to feel confident in their decision to retain legal counsel. This Guide provides plain-English explanations as an alternative to the legal jargon that fills legal books. Express Your Rights.
