

The Dawn of a Dream (At Home in Beldon Grove Book #3)

Her dream is within her grasp--but can she leave her past behind? Luellen OConnell is stunned when her husband of just one month tells her he is leaving--and his reason devastates her. Deeply wounded by his betrayal, Luellen decides to follow her dream to become a teacher, a desire she had set aside when she married. But can she truly hide her past? Or will it destroy her ambitions forever? A moving story of tenacity and perseverance, The Dawn of a Dream will inspire you to discover and follow your own dreams. Her best book yet! Ann Shorey's The Dawn of a Dream reminded me of a fine tapestry. A skillful blending of nineteenth-century history, intriguing facts about teachers training, and vivid descriptions of military life form a background for the story of one woman's determination to achieve her dream, despite seemingly insurmountable obstacles. Readers looking for a gentle story of love and honor should not miss it.--Amanda Cabot, author of Tomorrows Garden
