

Reading for this anthology, writes D.J. Enright, I was moved to the thought that on no theme have writers shown themselves more lively. A survivor of Belsen voiced the same sentiment when, reflecting on the concentration camps, he wrote, When in death we are in the midst of life. By turns poignant, tragic, comic, and inspiring, this anthology of thoughts about death ranges from ancient times to the present day--including almost 900 selections by poets, novelists, philosophers, scientists, and common people. Arranged under headings such as Love, War, Last Words, and Children, these selections show the varied, sometimes surprising, reactions of the dying and the bereaved to the final human act.

For the Love of Carney, A Daring Proposition, Sense and Sensibility, Damaged Broken But Healed By Love: A Christian Romance (A Dance Beneath the Stars Book 1), Baby on Loan (Mills & Boon Vintage Cherish), Uncovering the Silver Secret (Mills & Boon Modern), Smolder: The Wildwood Series,
