A CBA Bestselling Author After her farm for widows and orphans is devastated by fire in 1884, Christina Willems is determined to reopen it despite opposition. She finds an unlikely ally in local lumber mill owner Levi Johnson. Having been hurt by people in the past, Levi prefers solitude. But young Tommy Kilgore, one of Christinas residents, worms his way into Levis affections. When Tommy and Christina are threatened, will Levi reach out and find healing from the scars that haunt him?
