

When We Fall (Forever and Ever #38)

Conrad travels to the other side of the world to get away from his problems, but on closer examination he doesn't seem to have a problem at all. He spends his days doing exactly what he wants without a care in the world. Is he truly fine after what happened with Lexie? Or is the worst kind of breakdown anyone could ever imagine? Slade thinks Trinity has dropped the subject of seeing a fertility specialist, but when he least expects it she brings it up again. Slade doesn't have a choice but to go through with it. But what's responsible for his hesitance? Does he really think it's just a waste of time? Or is there another reason? Arsen has an epiphany at the most random time. Staring at Silke across the table, he realizes something he should have noticed a long time ago. Cayson and Skye are as rocky as ever. Cayson still claims he's innocent but Skye refuses to believe him. What happens when their secret leaks out to the rest of the group? Will it be World War III?
